

I vote no! to easing the restrictions on cell phone usage on airplanes. Not only are they a noise pollutant, but operators are rude, loud and inconsiderate. Most of the larger planes now have phones at your seat that you can use if absolutely necessary, so if a person needed to talk with someone they can use that phone. I strongly disagree with easing the restrictions. thanks